

LAUC-Riverside
2011/2012 Annual Report
July 31, 2012

LAUC-Riverside had a productive year in 2011/2012.

The Research & Professional Development Committee of LAUC-R reports that:

- A professional development fund of $21,330.00 was authorized for non-represented librarians.
- A professional development fund of $6992.08 was authorized for non-represented librarians.
- Three UCR librarians (Marie Bronoel, Melissa Conway, and Gwido Zlatkes) each received LAUC system-wide grants of $500 (four grants total, Melissa received two grants).

The Committee on Committees, Rules, Jurisdiction, and Elections of LAUC-R:

- Proposed revisions to our local Bylaws.
- Developed a slate of candidates and conducted a local election.

The Chancellor's Advisory Committee on the Librarian Series of LAUC-R:

- Handled the reviews of twelve librarians in 2011/2012.
- Was assisted by many LAUC-R members who served on ad hoc committees.

The Committee on Personnel of LAUC-R:

- Reviewed job description for Digital Initiatives and Metadata Librarian for the Water Resources Collections and Archives.
- Reviewed job description for Instruction Coordinator/Reference Librarian in the Rivera Reference Department.

The Committee on Professional Governance of LAUC-R:

- Gathered feedback on the Next Gen Librarian report.
- Sponsored a pre-assembly discussion of Next Gen Librarian report.

The Program Committee of LAUC-R organized and/or sponsored the following:

- Occupy -- In Their Own Voices.
- Talk on underground printing in communist Poland.
- Teach the Budget.
- A presentation on Angel Island for Asian Pacific Islander Heritage Month.

The Diversity Committee of LAUC-R:

- Along with the IE LEADS diversity fellowship program, organized a program on diversity.
- Presented Diversity: Whose Business Is It?

The LAUC-R Membership:

- Five librarians retired this year: John Bloomberg-Rissman (Collections), Diana Lane (Reference & Instruction), Lynn Reasoner (Government Documents), Heidi Hutchinson (Cataloging), and Patricia Hargis (Center for Bibliographic Studies and Research).
- Several librarians moved on to new jobs: Margaret Hogarth (Collections), Norma Juarez (Reference & Instruction), and Barbara Schader (AUL for Collections and Scholarly Communications).
- Non-librarian library staff with (or working on) MLIS or equivalent degrees were invited to participate in LAUC-R Membership meetings as non-voting guests.

The LAUC-R Executive Board:

- Met regularly (monthly) with the University Librarian and discussed among other things the future of librarianship.
- Obtained funds to sponsor programs.
- Organized agendas for bi-monthly Membership Meetings.

Respectfully submitted,

Manuel Urrizola
2011/2012 Chair, LAUC-R